

For Immediate Release

March 1, 2017

Contact:

Pamela Waters
843-937-7914

Media Release

Charleston County School District Accepting Applications for Child Development Programs

Early Learning

Gerrita Postlewait, Ed.D.
Superintendent of Schools

Terri Nichols
Associate Superintendent of Schools

Ruth Taylor
Executive Director of Early Childhood Learning

Charleston, SC — Charleston County School District (CCSD) is currently accepting applications for Child Development programs for the 2017-2018 school year.

Child Development offers full-day programs for students who will be four years old by September 1, 2017. Parents should apply at the district elementary school where their child is zoned to attend.

To apply for Child Development, families are asked to provide:

- Completed Child Development Application and Family Survey
- Legal Birth Certificate
- Proof of Residency
- Up-to-Date South Carolina Immunization Certificate

For additional information on early childhood programs offered in Charleston County School District, please contact (843) 937-7914.

###

About the Charleston County School District

Charleston County School District (CCSD) is the second largest school system in South Carolina representing a unique blend of urban, suburban, and rural schools that span 1,000 square miles along the coast. CCSD serves more than 50,000 students in 86 schools and several specialized programs. With approximately 6,100 employees district-wide, CCSD is the fourth largest employer in the region.

CCSD offers a diverse, expanding portfolio of options and specialized programs, delivered through neighborhood, charter, magnet, IB (international baccalaureate), and Montessori schools, and is divided into three Learning Communities led by associate superintendents. Options include specialized programs in science, engineering and mathematics; liberal arts; music and other creative and performing arts; career and technical preparation programs; and military and other public service enterprises.