Judith Condon Named Interim Principal of Angel Oak Elementary School

Charleston, SC — Charleston County School District (CCSD) is proud to announce and welcome Judith Condon as Interim Principal of Angel Oak Elementary School. Condon joins the District from Cobb County School District in Georgia where she served as Supervisor of Learning Design and Visual Arts since 2012.

Office of Strategy and Communications

Gerrita Postlewait, Ed.D.
Superintendent of Schools

Erica S. Taylor
Chief Officer

Condon began her teaching career as an art specialist at Hightower Trail Middle School in Cobb County in 2001. For 11 years, Condon taught sixth through eighth grade visual art and eighth grade advanced visual art, along with reading and literacy. In the summer of 2011 and 2012, she served as an art instructor at the Big Shanty Art Station for Cobb County government, where she taught elementary and middle school mixed media and K-12 ceramics.

In 2012, Condon stepped into the role of Learning Design and Visual Arts Supervisor in her county. In this position, she was responsible for overseeing content acquisition and instructional delivery of programs to 112 schools while working collaboratively across content areas to support school strategic planning. Specifically, Condon focused on developing new, research-based programs and student opportunities for engagement, deeper learning, problem-solving, and integration of arts, project-based learning, and STEAM (science, technology, engineering, arts, and math); assisting schools with the development of foundations, partnerships, and marketing plans; and leading teacher teams in the development of student learning objectives (SLOs), standards revisions, data teaming, and performance and portfolio-based assessment.

Condon has received many awards and accolades throughout the years, including being named the 2006-07 Teacher of Year for Hightower Trail Middle School in Marietta, GA; the 2011-12 Middle School Art Specialist of the Year for Cobb County School System; and the 2013-14 Georgia Art Education Association Supervisory/Administration Educator of the Year. Condon is also a member of the Professional Associate of Georgia Educators (PAGE), the Georgia Art Education Association (GAEA), and the National Art Education Association (NAEA).

Condon holds a Bachelor of Fine Arts in Art Education from Valdosta State University, a Master of Education in Curriculum and Instruction from Lesley University, and an Educational Specialist degree in Educational Leadership from Kennesaw State University.

About the Charleston County School District

Charleston County School District (CCSD) is the second largest school system in South Carolina representing a unique blend of urban, suburban, and rural schools that span 1,000 square miles along the coast. CCSD serves more than 50,000 students in 86 schools and several specialized programs. With approximately 6,100 employees district-wide, CCSD is the fourth largest employer in the region.

CCSD offers a diverse, expanding portfolio of options and specialized programs, delivered through neighborhood, charter, magnet, IB (international baccalaureate), and Montessori schools, and is divided into three Learning Communities led by associate superintendents. Options include specialized programs in science, engineering and mathematics; liberal arts; music and other creative and performing arts; career and technical preparation programs; and military and other public service enterprises.
