CCSD Welcomes Ryan Cumback as Principal of Moultrie Middle

Charleston, SC — Charleston County School District (CCSD) is proud to announce Ryan Cumback as the Principal of Moultrie Middle School. Cumback has been employed with Charleston County Schools for the past 10 years as a classroom teacher and administrator. Cumback has served as Interim Principal of Moultrie Middle since 2016.

Throughout his career, Cumback has served as an assistant principal for ninth and tenth grade students, and as an instructor in the Science and Fine Arts Departments. Some of his responsibilities in these roles included overseeing the implementation of EEDA At-Risk and SC School Climate grants, induction teacher support, formal teacher observations and evaluations, HSAP test administration, iPad integration, grants liaison, professional development and 504 plan coordination, textbook administration, academic and behavioral data analysis, discipline referral processing, and serving as CORE chair.

“I am so excited for the East Cooper and Moultrie educational families,” said Dr. Joe Williams, Executive Director of Middle School Learning. “They have acquired a fantastic leader in Mr. Ryan Cumback. He is a scholar-centered and data-driven leader that will bring such positive change to the school and community!”

Cumback also served as an Assistant Administrator, Truancy Officer, Credit Recovery Program Coordinator, and World History teacher during his previous post within in the District.

Cumback received a Bachelor in Science in Education from Western Michigan University and a Master in Secondary Educational Administration from The Citadel. Cumback was also the recipient of the 2010 South Carolina Department of Education "Initiative Award" for West Ashley High School's CATS Program, and was selected as the West Ashley High School Rookie Teacher of the Year for 2006-2007.

About the Charleston County School District

Charleston County School District (CCSD) is the second largest school system in South Carolina representing a unique blend of urban, suburban, and rural schools that span 1,000 square miles along the coast. CCSD serves more than 50,000 students in 86 schools and several specialized programs. With approximately 6,100 employees district-wide, CCSD is the fourth largest employer in the region.

CCSD offers a diverse, expanding portfolio of options and specialized programs, delivered through neighborhood, charter, magnet, IB (international baccalaureate), and Montessori schools, and is divided into three Learning Communities led by associate superintendents. Options include specialized programs in science, engineering and mathematics; liberal arts; music and other creative and performing arts; career and technical preparation programs; and military and other public service enterprises.
