Media Advisory

Charleston County School District schools to reopen Monday, September 17, 2018 after Hurricane Florence

Office of Strategy and Communications

Gerrita Postlewait, Ed.D.
Superintendent of Schools

Erica Taylor
Chief Officer

CHARLESTON S.C. – Charleston County School District (CCSD) will reopen for school on Monday, September 17, 2018.

ALL school buses and bus routes are expected to run as scheduled on Monday; and our Office of Nutrition Services will be prepared to provide meals at all campuses.

School and district administrators are aware that families may experience hardships as a result of Hurricane Florence's impact, and will work with those families on an individual basis; especially those who evacuated and may not be back on Monday.

Continue to stay safe, and thank you for your support of Charleston County School District.

About the Charleston County School District

Charleston County School District (CCSD) is the second largest school system in South Carolina representing a unique blend of urban, suburban, and rural schools that span 1,000 square miles along the coast. CCSD serves more than 50,000 students in 86 schools and specialized programs. With approximately 6,100 employees district-wide, CCSD is the fourth largest employer in the region.

CCSD offers a diverse, expanding portfolio of options and specialized programs, delivered through neighborhood, charter, magnet, IB (international baccalaureate), and Montessori schools, and is divided into three Learning Communities. Options include specialized programs in science, engineering and mathematics; liberal arts; music and other creative and performing arts; career and technical preparation programs; and military and other public service enterprises.
