Media Advisory

Technology Night at Drayton Hall

Who: Students, parents, school staff, community members, and media outlets are welcomed and encouraged to attend.

What: Drayton Hall Elementary School is hosting Technology Night, an event where students will showcase the work they have done throughout the school year in iPads, computers, and other devices that facilitate learning. Technology Night is designed to educate parents and community members about the opportunities that exist at Drayton Hall and give them a glimpse of what scholars are accomplishing through technology.

The event will start in the cafeteria, but displays and interaction with students will occur throughout the school as every grade is involved.

When: Tuesday, February 5, 2019; 6:15 p.m. to 7:15 p.m.

Where: Drayton Hall Elementary School, 3183 Ashley River Road, Charleston, SC 29414

For more information about Drayton Hall's Technology Night, please contact Principal Brian Agnew at (843) 852-0678.

About the Charleston County School District

Charleston County School District (CCSD) is the second largest school system in South Carolina representing a unique blend of urban, suburban, and rural schools that span 1,000 square miles along the coast. CCSD serves more than 50,000 students in 86 schools and specialized programs. With approximately 6,100 employees district-wide, CCSD is the fourth largest employer in the region.

CCSD offers a diverse, expanding portfolio of options and specialized programs, delivered through neighborhood, charter, magnet, IB (international baccalaureate), and Montessori schools, and is divided into three Learning Communities. Options include specialized programs in science, engineering and mathematics; liberal arts; music and other creative and performing arts; career and technical preparation programs; and military and other public service enterprises.
